By Car

From the North Take I-95 South to R.I. Exit 9 (a left-lane exit onto Rte. 4 South). Follow Rte. 4 to Rte. 1 South until you reach Rte. 138 West, just past the Holiday Inn. (Don't take the first Rte. 138 exit—this would take you east to Newport.) Travel approximately 4 miles on Rte. 138; URI will be on the right. Come through the main entrance on Upper College Road and stop at the Visitors' Center (on the right) for a parking permit.

From the South Take I-95 North to R.I. Exit 3A to Rte. 138 East. URI is about 9 miles down Rte. 138, on the left. Come through the main entrance on Upper College Road and stop at the Visitors' Center (on the right) for a parking permit.

WaterFire is an award-winning installation of 100 bonfires on the three rivers that pass through downtown Providence. Praised by residents and international visitors alike, WaterFire is a moving symbol of the city's renaissance.

The Kingston Campus— and Beyond

URI's Kingston Campus is located in southern Rhode Island, close to the ocean and major beaches. Major metropolitan cities such as Boston and New York City are easily accessible by car, bus, or train.

Kingston is just a 30-minute drive from the state capital of Providence, a vibrant city rich in history, culture, a contemporary art scene, and award-winning restaurants. The capital city is also home to the Feinstein Providence Campus and URI's Alan Shawn Feinstein College of Continuing Education (ASFCCE).

Also nearby, the waterfront city of Newport is home to the world-famous Newport Jazz and Folk Festivals, a flourishing arts scene, historic mansions, and plenty of restaurants and shopping.
